IF ORIENTAL WAR SHOULD COME.
If war on small Japan big Russia shall begin.
And China's pigtailed clan steps up and pitches in.
What awful things must men in countries far away.
If they would keep informed, essay to read each day.

With warships named Chin Yen, Petropavlovsk, Mikasa, Scrastopol, Iwate, Rossy, Shikishima, A mix-up on the sea might make a word like this:
"I Wate-to-Se-Yo-Ross-as-Pet-Mikase-Chin-Yu-Kis."

Warships may Writski tales of Simahjapanski's deeds,
How mince meat he's made of all Mongolaki breeds;
How Chu-Tip-Ros-sia's way of settling Cossack hash Deah makee Czaree squeal; Higgunski gone to smash.

How Count Comeoffitch to Wing Lee hatched a scheme,
Hat Wing Lee with Wun Lung come offvitch supreme;
How Russian fame to save, Goodshotaki made a try
Hat failed; the reason plain—because he shot Tu Hai.

But such things as these and maps Chinese

To puzzle New World brains, there'll be no chance

To solve that riddle now beyond the ken of man, Exactly how old is Queen Dowager Tai Ann.

TELEPHONE No. 43. G. W. GEISEL, OPPOSITE OPERA-HOUSE.

Rev. Clyde Brooks of Lexington will occupy the pulpit at Beasley Church Sunday morning and night.

Mrs. Emma Ryan of Columbus, O., of whose serious illness mention has been made in this column, is improving very slowly.

Mr. Godfrey Lipp of West Third street has accepted a position in Cincinnati and will shortly move his family to that city to reside.

The many friends of Miss Lillie Reynolds will regret to hear of her serious illness with typhoid fever at her home in Portsmouth, O.

The sloppy and dirty condition of the sidewalks in many parts of the city is the fault of the property owners not having the snow removed. In other cities the size of Maysville they have laws compelling them to do so under penalty of a fine.

KILLED AT AUGUSTA

Aged Woman Run Down Yesterday Morning By C. and O. Train

Mrs. Edwards, aged about 70 years, was struck by C. and O. train No. 10 yesterday morning as it was pulling into Augusta and died from her injuries in a few hours. She attempted to cross the track and lost her life in doing so.

Mr. George H. Traxel of this city was on the train en route to Cincinnati, and witnessed the accident. This is the second life lost in that city by being ground beneath the wheels of a train within two weeks, yet people continue to be careless and reckless about the approach of a train. In nine cases out of ten the fault is with the injured and not that of company or management.

Mrs. William McD. Shaw at their palatial home in Covington Tuesday night.

Springdale and Colonel Charlie Dogman are putting on full-fledged city airs, now that Uncle Sam has given that pretty little village a Money Order Postoffice. The event happened January 2d, and Colonel Dogman has barely recovered from the agreeable shock.

The announcement of the filing of his petition in bankruptcy by Mr. Robert C. Kirk of this city in Covington Thursday appeared in this paper yesterday. He figures his liabilities at $8,252.69 and no assets except what he has pledged with the State National Bank of this city as security for $3,983.64 due on notes.

THE LEDGER of yesterday was misled in its statement of the discharge of Mr. William Clements as an engineer on the C. and O. Railroad. While it is true that some of the engineers were under investigation, Mr. Clements is still an employee of the road and is running his same old engine. He is the oldest in point of service and is acknowledged to be about the best engineer in the Western country. THE LEDGER, together with his numerous friends in this city, is glad that the statement was premature and without foundation.
